POINTS OF PRIDE

- $11,345.25! That's how much students at Gettys D. Broome High School raised for this year's District Three Christmas Assistance program (along with about 200 presents).
- Six students were honored to be chosen for Palmetto Boys State and Palmetto Girls State. Four as first time attendees and two as Junior Counselors.
- Mrs. Summer Carling was chosen as the District Three Teacher of the Year.
- We collected more than 5,000 cans for our food drive!

ANNUAL GOALS AND NEEDS

The School Improvement Council goals for Broome High School include:

- Improve Algebra I EOC scores
- Increase US History EOC scores
- Increase College and Career Readiness

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENT

- Our graduation rate continues to be around 90%, which is far higher than the state average!
- We successfully focused on a PBIS implementation, with our goal of increasing attendance.
- Gettys D. Broome High School increased the number of dual credit courses available to students.
