TESTING

POINTS OF PRIDE

- Pacolet Elementary School earned an Excellent Report Card Rating for the 2022-2023 school year.
- Mrs. April Barnhill, 2nd grade teacher, was named District Reading Teacher of the Year.
- Ms. Amanda Lee, the music teacher, received an Equitable Arts Advancement Program grant called Dazzling Drums.
- We received a grant for a Book Vending Machine. The machine will be used for reading incentives for our students.
- Three students qualified for the State Elementary Honor Choir.

ANNUAL GOALS AND NEEDS

- K-5 classes will continue to refine and implement a comprehensive literacy approach for reading.
- We will increase our percentage of students achieving meets and exceed on SC Ready in reading and math.

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENT

- Field experiences are provided for 4K-5th grade students.
- We held many parent involvement opportunities to celebrate our families such as Family Literacy Night, STEM Night, Grits with Grands, parent lunches, Fine Arts Night, and Books for Bagels.
- Students had the opportunity to give back to the community by participating in Kidz in Lids, canned food drives, making cards for Veterans and nursing homes, and sustaining a book lending library.
