POINTS OF PRIDE

- Two teachers were selected for the ExploreLearning Frax Educator Grant Program.
- We were awarded the 2024-25 Arts in Education - Arts Enhancement Program grant by the South Carolina Department of Education for $10,000.
- Three students were selected for the State Honor Choir.
- Mrs. Camby, Kindergarten Teacher, was named District Reading Teacher of the Year.
- We launched our very own afterschool program, D3 Academy.

ANNUAL GOALS AND NEEDS

- Our school's percentage of students meeting and exceeding expectations in math is higher than both the state and district averages.
- Our school's percentage of students meeting and exceeding expectations in reading surpasses the state average.

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

- Our November "Clemson vs. Carolina" canned food drive was a successful community service project, with all donations benefitting the B.E. Mays Food Pantry.
- We organize workshops that provide families with effective strategies to support children's well-being and learning at home, through initiatives like the Strengthening Families program.
- The successful implementation of a schoolwide PBIS program encourages and celebrates positive behavior among all students.
