The mission of Hollis Academy is to support students socially, emotionally, and academically by establishing an engaging environment where students are inspired to create, collaborate, and commit themselves to a lifetime of learning.

About Us

Hollis Academy is a Title I school located in the Judson Mill Community in Greenville, South Carolina. We serve students in K4 through fifth grade. The school day begins at 8:00 am and students are dismissed at 2:30 pm. The history of Hollis Academy began with the establishment of the Parker School District by Mr. Laurence Peter Hollis. Mr. Hollis was instrumental as the superintendent of the school district, where he served from 1923-1951. After the Parker School District consolidated with the School District of Greenville County, Mr. Hollis continued to support public education and community involvement. Hollis Academy is named for Mr. L.P. Hollis and is proud to continue his tradition of excellence in education.
