FAIRFIELD COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Progress Actions Planned

- ◇ Parental involvement increased through activities such as Warm-Up with a Good Book, Grandparents Day Drive-Thru, Parents Recognition Drive-Thru, Parent Liaison free book giveaway, and Drive-Thru Arts Extravaganza.
- ◇ Continue to increase student achievement through academics with a variety of virtual options such as Math March Madness and virtual Black History presentations
- ◇ Increase student performances, school and community, to showcase the arts using virtual performances, art competitions such as Safe Schools contest, YouTube and Stop Motion videos, Bus Safety Contest and SCSL Bookmark Design Contest
- ◇ Student growth in academic performance through results on 2021 Spring MAP
- ◇ Enter students into academic and art competitions such as the State Nuclear Art Winner, School Bus Safety Art Competition, SCSL Bookmark Winner and Safe Schools Art Contest
- ◇ Progress made with building relationships between community and school. (SIC, Business Partners with First Franklin)

2020-2021 Goals

Goal 1: To continue to implement engagement, innovation, and rigor to maintain a high level of student achievement.

Goal 2: To continue to incorporate STEAM education, as access points for guiding student inquiry, dialogue, and critical thinking, in an effort to prepare students to be College & Career Ready.

Goal 3: To continue to incorporate various events to increase parental and community involvement.

The purpose of this Report to the Parents is to give an update on the progress being made toward achievement goals. In this report, we have provided brief goals, programs, activities, awards, and recognitions for students and teachers.
