

FINE ARTS

Cane Bay Fine Arts upheld its reputation as the most talented school in the Tri-County Area by earning straight superior ratings for Band, Chorus and Orchestra, all groups received All-State recognition as well. Our own Mr. Bennett (Chorus) earned national recognition as a Grammy Award Finalist. The visual arts did its part by bringing in more local awards than most schools in our region combined. Emilee Williams won the Charleston Artist Guild Founders Scholarship, which came with a Prize of $1,000. Several Students earned recognition at the "Each One, Teach One" exhibit in North Charleston City Hall. Our own Jamal Monroe won the Home Telecom phonebook cover design contest which also included a $1000 Prize. Even one of our staff members was recognized with Mary Jane Robinson winning recognition at the Water Mission International Arts Contest. The newly formed Cane Bay Drama Company amazed viewers early in the year with its production of "Cane Bay Night Live" and earned a county wide audience for its amazing production of "The Wizard of Oz."

ATHLETICS

Cane Bay is the proud home of State Wrestling Champ Matt Rudy and Samaria Mazyck, Tri-County Champion in shot put and discus. Cane Bay continued its winning ways with several teams making playoff appearances. Our own Mr. Tim McDowell was named 4A Region 7 Athletic Director of the year for a 2nd year in a row. Our Teams were cheered on by our exceptional cheerleaders whose competition squad made it to the State Finals this year. We are also were proud to have 3 winners from the State Strength Competition: Tracy Gilliard, Damon Deford and Kennan Simpson. CBH continues to develop student athletes that represent CBH well both on and off the field. Many of our athletes are also recipients of service awards, academic recognitions and athletic scholarship offers.
