

2018-2019 Awards and Recognitions

- Ranked 14th academically in the state of SC with an Excellent school rating on the state report card.
- Southwood Academy granted $13,260.62 for the Arts in Basic Curriculum grant under the leadership of Joshua Powell.
- Southwood Academy granted $16,731.24 for the DAP grant under the leadership of Leslie Marchi-Monroe.
- Southwood Academy high school Sinfonia orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Perry, was selected to perform at the SC Music Educators Association Conference in February 2019.
- Jonathan Redden scored a perfect score on the math SC Ready test spring 2018
- Southwood Academy middle school orchestra had six students make Region Orchestra
- Southwood Academy high school orchestra had 22 students make Region Orchestra
- Southwood Academy high school orchestra had 39 students make County Orchestra
- Southwood Academy middle school orchestra had 28 students make County Orchestra.
- Southwood Academy middle school orchestra had 3 students make All State Orchestra.
- Southwood Academy high school orchestra had 2 students make All State Orchestra.
- Southwood Academy high school chamber choir had 7 make All State Choir.
- Southwood Academy presented the musical Willy Wonka the second week of November.
- Students and staff collect over $1500 for United Way in October.
- Students and staff collect socks for the underprivileged in Anderson in an event called Socktober.
- Joshua Powell was selected as this year's recipient of the Columbia Museum of Art's Mac Arthur Goodwin Award for Outstanding Service in Arts Education and Administration.
- Southwood Academy middle school band had 16 students make County Orchestra.
- Southwood Academy Chamber Choir scored a Superior rating at the Lander Choir Festival.
- 31 Southwood students were selected to participate in the Governors' School Summer program this summer.
- Southwood Academy had 13 students selected to participate in Youth Art Month at Anderson Arts Center. There were two first place winners, one second place winner, and an honorable mention.
- Southwood Academy had 12 students selected to participate in the Anderson 5 Art Exhibit at the Anderson Arts Center.
- Southwood Academy had 4 students selected to participate in the South Carolina Art Education Association Western Region Youth Art Month Exhibit.
- Anna Chen also won first place in the South Carolina Art Education Association State Youth Art Month Exhibit.
- Southwood Academy sixth grade orchestra earned a superior at concert performance assessment in Myrtle Beach.
- Southwood Academy seventh/eighth grade orchestra earned a superior at concert performance assessment in Myrtle Beach.
- Southwood Academy high school sinfonia orchestra earned a superior at Concert Performance Assessment and earned top score of the day.
- Southwood Academy high school Chamber Choir earned an Excellent rating at concert performance assessment.
- Employees of the Year - Teacher-William "Allen" Kay, Instructional Support Staff-Joseph Alessandrini, Non-instructional Support Staff-Amanda Glenn, Custodian-Charles "Mo" Martin, Cafeteria-Amanda "Gale" Gaines.
- Kellse Flores was the recipient of the 2019 Cory White Diversity Award to be honored as a role model in advocating for diversity and acceptance within the school community.
- Jessica McFarland, middle school dance teacher was identified as exemplary from a panel of content specialists, and recommended for publication on SCETV's "LearningWhy" website.
- Southwood Academy middle school orchestra received 37 Superior ratings and 2 Excellent ratings in the SCMEA Solo and Ensemble Festival.
- Southwood Academy middle School Band received 7 Superior ratings and 2 Excellent ratings in the SCMEA Solo and Ensemble Festival.
- Southwood Academy high school orchestra competed in Tennessee and received top honors out of all 24 performing groups at the competition.

*Southwood Academy of the Arts
Annual Parent Report
2018-2019*

