

Meeting Street Burns Mission

Meeting Street Burns exists to spark an educational revolution for the students and families in the Dorchester-Waylan Neighborhood in North Charleston. Built on a culture of love, inclusion, and an unwavering belief that all students can succeed, we provide a PreK-7th grade educational experience that ensure our students grow academically, emotionally, and are on the path to college.

Challenges/Special Conditions for 2022-2023

- Chronic Absenteesim was on the rise this academic school year. We observed families still struggling with understanding attendance policies and expectations.
- The vast majority of students are not meeting meets or exceeds on SC READY.
- Several parenting events had to be cancelled or postponed due to weather and other events. The number of parents/families participating was impacted in a negative way.

2022 SC READY Data (3rd-6th Grade)
