ACHIEVEMENTS

*The Graduation rate for the BHS Class of 2020 was 83.1% with $5,097,304 in scholarships.

*Our Varsity Football Team performed well under difficult circumstances this year. We had four All-Region selections: Matt Davis, Jeremiah Foster, Dustin Rising, and Ty Wilson.

*Our Varsity Girls' Basketball Team excelled this season. Our Lady 'Cats were the Region 2 2A Champions and Upper State 2A Runner up. Mikayla Logan was named to the 2A All-State Team as well as Region Player of the Year. Mikayla Logan, Essence Caviness, and Atia Tate were All - Region Players. Bobby Rodgers was named Coach of the Year.

*Ty Wilson was selected for the Boys' Basketball All-Region Team.

*Jackson Lipe was named to the All-State Clinic Band. Jacob Coughlin, Payton Moore, and Bradley Coffee achieved Region Six Honor Band status.

*Mrs. Monica Martin was selected by her peers as Teacher of the Year and Mrs. Tamara Davis was chosen as our Support Staff of the Year. Mr. Douglas Blackburn was awarded the CRC Distinguished Teacher of Reading.

UPDATED ACTIVITIES

*We will have 14 graduating AVID Seniors this year with a total AVID enrollment of 87 students. Thirteen AVID seniors have received college acceptance letters and one student will enter the National Guard. Our data reports show that AVID students consistently score higher on EOC exams than non-AVID students.

*BHS continues to maintain in-depth Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) and Response to Intervention (RtI) programs to assist emerging students to succeed in the classroom both academically and behaviorally.

ONGOING NEEDS ASSESSMENT

*Provide a safe, secure learning environment.

*Focus on academic achievement with the goal to improve all End of Course and Advance Placement assessments, as well as improving all College and Career assessment performances including SAT, ACT, and WIN tests in an effort to better prepare our students for their future.

*Continue to focus on our four-year graduation rate.

PERFORMANCE GOALS

*Our Faculty and Staff will continue to participate in Professional Development addressing improving state and national assessments, full implementation of AVID strategies, and addressing academic and behavior performance using the Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS).

*BHS students will be college or career ready by excelling on the ACT, SAT, and WIN assessments.

*The students, faculty / staff, and parents within the BHS family will be satisfied with the safety and learning environment at Blacksburg High School through the continued implementation of improved safety measures and expanded communication between home and school.
