Career Prep

All 774 of our students experienced a Career Day they will never forget! Parent volunteers and community members showed up to encourage the next generation!

We are excited to welcome our new Principal Mr. Marvin Taylor to the Hive! With over 15 years experience as an educator, Mr. Taylor has held positions as a teacher at North Charleston Elementary, Assistant Principal at Edmund A. Burns Elementary, and Assistant Principal at St. Andrew's School of Math and Science.

This year, Mr. Taylor has brought an energy level that is unmatched at the hive! He truly loves our students, staff and parents and it shows. From the booming morning announcements to the jammin' weekly updates, he always finds a way to make it fun! Keep Spreading The Love Like Peanut Butter and Jelly!
