Letter from our Principal

Greetings from J-E-T Middle School - a student-centered community that prepares learners for the challenges of the future with an emphasis on skills necessary for success at the high school level. J-E-T Middle School promotes PRIDE – Personal Responsibility in Developing Excellence and the students and staff begin each day by reciting our school creed and reminding each other to exhibit PRIDE while practicing the 3 R's – Respect, Responsibility, and always being Ready to Learn. We have established a digital PRIDE notebook for every student to monitor his or her weekly progress and to set goals on a weekly basis.

J-E-T offers a plethora of opportunities for students to excel academically, athletically, and emotionally through an emphasis on educating the whole child. Academically, the administrators and teachers have worked to raise the rigor and relevancy of classroom instruction by transitioning into a career and college ready instructional model that includes inquiry, station rotation models, and cooperative learning opportunities where all student needs are met. J-E-T Middle School has established a focus on meeting the needs of all learners as well as implementing inquiry strategies that are used in all classes. In addition to academics, J-E-T Middle School also recognizes the importance of meeting the social and emotional needs of our students. The implementation of the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program, development of a strong MTSS team and having an on-site school psychologist and guidance counselor are just a few ways that we meet the needs of the whole student.

J-E-T offers a variety of middle and high school sports as well as a fine arts department that continues to achieve at the regional and state levels. The students have performed over the past year in our Black History program, Veterans Day program, Spring Concert and Strom Thurmond High School's musical "Beauty and the Beast." In addition, we are proud to mention that each year we have students who also win local, district and state writing competitions as well as region and state Mock Trial competitions. Our J-E-T PTO is very active in bringing our school family together through fundraisers such as school dances, Color Runs and other school sponsored events. The School Improvement Council is instrumental in creating a vision for ways to bring J-E-T Middle School and the local community together.

We are achieving great things at J-E-T Middle School and invite you to visit our award-winning school any time!

Sincerely,
Debbie Courtney, Principal

At Johnston-Edgefield-Trenton Middle School, our vision is to create:

Effective Communicators who will use verbal, written, artistic, and technological forms of communication to give, send, and receive information.

Inspired Learners who are accountable for demonstrating, assessing, and directing their present and life-long intellectual growth.

Productive Workers who perform collaboratively and independently to create quality products and services that reflect personal pride and responsibility.

Responsible Citizens who have global and multi-cultural perspectives and who take the initiative for improving the quality of life for self and others.

Resourceful Thinkers who independently and creatively strive to solve complex problems through reflection, risk-taking, and critical evaluation.

Personal Responsibility In Developing Excellence
...through Respect, Responsibility and always being Ready to learn.

The mission of Johnston-Edgefield-Trenton (J-E-T) Middle School is to be a student-centered community that prepares learners for the challenges of the future. We will provide an academically engaging and relationship building environment that, in three years, produces students who are Ready for High School.

Creed

We are the students, faculty, and staff of J-E-T Middle School. We take PRIDE - Personal Responsibility in Developing Excellence in ourselves and our school. We come to school each day with the expectation that we will exhibit RESPECT, RESPONSIBILITY, and always bring READY to learn. We honor each other by celebrating our successes, respecting our differences, and supporting our struggles. Together, we accept the challenge to achieve. Together, we are family. Go Eagles!

Olweus Bullying Prevention Program (OBPP)-

The Olweus Program is a comprehensive approach that includes schoolwide, classroom, individual, and community components. J-E-T Middle School is in the beginning stages of implementation. The program is focused on long-term change that creates a safe and positive school climate. The program's goals are to reduce and prevent bullying problems among school children and to improve peer relations at school. The program has been found to reduce bullying among students, improve the social climate of classrooms, and reduce related antisocial behaviors, such as vandalism and truancy.
