JMS Junior Beta Club

The Junior Beta Club is a very active organization at JMS. Each year, about 100 students attend the South Carolina State Junior Beta Club Convention at Myrtle Beach, S.C. Consistently, our students win many awards. This year, our group won first place in the Spotlight Your Club competition and in colored photography. As a part of their duty to help others, students accumulated just over 700 service hours last year.

Junior Beta Club Motto:

"Let us lead by serving others."

Making Middle Grades Work

Johnsonville Middle School is participating in the Making Middle Grades Work program. This initiative involves maximizing our resources, utilizing data, and increasing rigor in the classroom so as to enhance student learning.

Student Council

Working at JMS

The JMS Student Council is a service organization whose goal is to serve the students at JMS as well as the community of Johnsonville. Student Council also serves as the student body government and the "voice" of the students. Through participation in Student Council, students learn to follow proper procedures to engender change. Activities include Hat Day to help Rock Band. November: Carolina/Clemson Food Drive - Students, faculty, and staff donate food items which benefit the community food bank (last year we collected almost 1,000 items).

Mock Trial

Mock Trial is very active. They qualified for State with a win in Regionals. Several won awards at Regionals and State.
