

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Chukker Creek Elementary School is to provide a safe, nurturing environment in which all students are challenged to set high standards in academics and integrated arts. The faculty and staff will work collaboratively with parents and the community to develop responsible, productive citizens of strong character.

BELIEFS

We are the premier elementary school in Aiken County. We are an example of the best that public education in the United States can be.

SCHOOL VISION

We envision a school in which

1. ...we have an immaculate and up-to-date facility to house our population.
2. ...we provide a physically and emotionally safe setting for all of our stakeholders.
3. ...we employ an excellent faculty and staff that are able to translate their knowledge, talents, and skills into an incredible and unique learning environment for all children.
4. ...we respect and appreciate that we are in a partnership with our students, their families, and our community.
5. ...we can reach and teach all students.
