

Woodmont High School
Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Woodmont High School is an International Baccalaureate World School and one of 14 regular public high schools in the School District of Greenville County. Our state-of-the-art facility boasts nearly 300,000 square feet and is situated on a picturesque 69-acre campus in rural southern Greenville County. The school serves a diverse population of nearly 1,850 students (69% white, 24% African American, 5% Hispanic, and 2% other) in grades 9-12. The school's Poverty Index is currently at 62% with approximately half of all students participating in the Free & Reduced Lunch Program. Woodmont High features a strong and experienced staff of administrators and teachers with a five-year staff retention rate of 95 percent. More than half of the faculty have advanced degrees. The distinguished faculty includes award-winning individuals such as the District Teacher of the Year, SC Bar Association Mock Trial Teacher of the Year, SC Outstanding Young Agriculture Educator of the Year, Mentor Teacher of the Year and the SC Governor's Council on Physical Fitness Individual Award Teacher. Fifteen members of the faculty are National Board Certified Teachers.

The SIC focused on improving graduation rate, career opportunities and community awareness for the 2015-16 school year and successfully implemented its vision. Through the work and careful planning of the SIC and its business partners, significant progress has been made toward reaching its goals and these goals will remain as focal points for the upcoming year.
