

Our Mission:

To empower students to become independent, productive learners who exemplify good character in an increasingly global society.

School Motto:

"Empowering Learners For A World Class Education"

Vision:

The vision of Greer Middle is to become a model that all other schools in the state will aspire to emulate. We will become a pillar that supports our community and contributes to the quality of life of our families. We will become vital to the function and success of the academic programs and support the greater school mission. We will become a school that teachers gladly support, students respect, and of which community members can be proud.

Parent Involvement

At Greer Middle School, we recognize the importance of parental involvement. We encourage parents, family members, and guardians to visit our school, become involved in our Parent/Teacher Association and School Improvement Council.

Parent Involvement Opportunities include:

6th Grade Orientation, 7th/8th Grade Orientation, Washington DC Parent Meeting, PTSA Open House, GMS Book Fair, Bring Dads To Lunch, Bring Moms To Lunch, Goodies For Grands, Bring Grandparents To Lunch, Mr. and Miss GMS Pageants, Ambassador End Of Year Luncheon, Celebration of Excellence, Black and Gold Day, and Fall/Spring concerts in Strings, Band, and Chorus.
