About Us

Greenbrier, a public school in southern Greenville County, is located in the Mauldin community. Our school, home to over 800 wonderful students, has classes in kindergarten through grade five. We have a 4K classroom and four self-contained special education classes. Specialists in art, music, PE, and library science teach all students.

The student and staff population of Greenbrier have a high attendance record. We believe children who enter school in good health, feel safe, and are connected to their school are ready to learn. Greenbrier Elementary provides a caring and supportive environment. This caring community requires all members to treat each other with kindness and respect. To accomplish such a goal, students and teachers take active roles in shaping the culture and environment of the classroom, as well as of the school at large.

Our Beliefs

- ◇ All children can learn.
- ◇ Each child is a unique individual with distinct abilities and goals.
- ◇ All children should be challenged.
- ◇ A sense of responsibility should be fostered.
- ◇ Each child should be treated with respect & encouraged to develop respect for self and others.
- ◇ The cooperation of home, school and community is necessary in the educational process.
- ◇ The school should be a safe, secure and disciplined place for all people.
