

Our Hands at Work

Hunt Meadows has incorporated Ron Clark's House System as a way to create a deeper sense of family, community and belonging. Students compete for "house points" weekly, and various community service projects help students earn house points.

Hunt Meadows' PTO sponsored a fund raiser, raising over $25,000. All money stays with the school and funds are used for staff incentives, teacher retention and recruiting, classroom needs, and playground equipment.

Students and faculty raised nearly $1,000 for the United Way campaign.

Students and faculty raised over $1,000 for our March of Dimes campaign.

5th grade musical and school-wide arts show showcased how the arts are integrated into the curriculum and celebrated.

Field trips have been reinstated after being on hold due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Field trips were held for students at each grade level with some grade levels having the opportunity to participate in multiple field trips.

Students continue to be recognized and celebrated for academic success and for displaying good citizenship.

A Student Centered Approach

At Hunt Meadows Elementary School, it is our belief that all students can and will learn at high levels. We seek to help all students experience success by becoming active and engaged participants in the learning process, and we want all students to develop a love for learning early in their academic careers. To help us achieve this goal, we have a student focused mindset, where student safety and achievement are our top priorities. Based on the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate, we want to provide an environment where students are provided with world class knowledge, skills, and life and career characteristics that will set them up for current and future success.

At Hunt Meadows, PLCs (Professional Learning Communities) are not just what we do, but are a part of who we are. Our teachers work in collaborative groups to ensure all students experience academic success.

We are so appreciative of the opportunity we have to love on and care for the students and families in our community.
