School Improvement Council Annual Report 2020 - 2021

At SOESMM, We Believe

- Students are the primary focus of all decisions.
- Intentional instruction supports all aspects of the child.
- Excellence in learning is directly related to excellence in teaching.
- Students are successful learners when their teachers establish positive relationships.
- Communication and collaboration are essential to educating all learners.

During the 2020- 2021 School Year, we have...

- increased opportunities for small group instruction by providing additional support through our Instructional Assistants and Reading and Math Coaches
- increased the number of students who have access to Reading and Math Intervention
- focused data team and instructional decisions around our ELA standards
- reformatted the method in which teachers receive planning support from our Reading and Math Coaches

Highlights of 2020 - 2021

- D'aisha Braddick (pictured above) named Student of the Month by the Rotary Club of Irmo/Lake Murray
- Leslie Jones, 3rd Grade, named Teacher of the Year; Top 3 for District Teacher of the Year
- Courtney Shuttleworth, Hearing Interpreter, named Support Employee of the Year
- Received USDA Grant to participate in the FRESH Fruits and Vegetables program
- Partnered with Rack Room Shoes in the Shoes That Fit Program

"I love Seven Oaks Elementary School Media Magnet. I always learn new things and the teachers make learning fun. The lunch ladies are kind and the custodians always check on me to make sure I'm doing okay. "

Daniel, Grade 3

"Seven Oaks Elementary School is the best school for kids to start learning. Take it from a kid who goes to Seven Oaks Elementary School, and everything about the school just makes me so happy. It is the best and so are all the teachers and kids there."

Andrea, Grade 5
