McCormick, South Carolina

McCormick County is located along the Savannah River basin and includes seven historic rail towns. The City of McCormick serves as the county seat and provides other services.

Buffered by 63,000 acres of national forests, three state parks, and 70,000 acre Lake Thurmond, McCormick is unique with its quiet traditional quality of life and nature's amenities all around.

McCormick County is building a 21st century economy around industry, the arts, culture, recreation and tourism.

The School District Educational Complex occupies 247 acres and 179,491 square feet.
