Additional Information

Eau Claire High School is a Title One High School that serves over 500 students in grades 9-12 in the downtown area of Columbia— South Carolina's capital. Our school's demographic breakdown is approximately 93% African American, 4 % Latino, 1% Caucasian, and 2% Other. Our school is located in one of the most economically— challenged areas of the city, where there are several urban renewal projects underway. It is our belief that as our community undergoes the revitalization process, that our community will flourish once again.
