The School Improvement Council of Burton-Pack Elementary School has prepared the Annual School Report for all stakeholders. The report reviews the academic gains made last year by reviewing last year's test scores and uses this data to effectively outline an improvement plan for the current academic year. Enclosed you will find details of the progress made toward accomplishing the targeted goals in 2018-2019, as well as the desired results for student learning that have been prioritized for this school year. If you have any questions about the information summarized here, please contact the following individuals:
