Updated Needs Assessment

- Boiling Springs Intermediate School will continue to use data to develop and enhance the school's instructional focus to increase achievement as indicated by district benchmarks and South Carolina Ready state testing.
- Continue the literacy focus and implementation of Read to Succeed through enhanced staff development with Guided Reading, LLI (Leveled Literacy Intervention), Development Reading Assessment (DRA), and writing workshops.
- Continue to implement the District Two EXCEL learning district initiative. We will continue to provide support for teachers as they incorporate the one-to-one technology to enhance their classroom instruction.
- Continue our focus on gendered learning in both single-gender and coeducational classrooms while emphasizing specific strategies to meet the needs of our male and female learners.
- Continue to place an emphasis on student leadership and 21st century life skills through an on-going partnership with Franklin Covey, infusing the 8 Habits of Highly Effective People to teach and reinforce self-discipline, self-reliance, and increase self-confidence.
- Continue to implement healthy school initiatives and put an emphasis on health and nutrition for students and staff.
- Provide enriched instruction in all academic areas for gifted and talented students on a daily basis in a challenging environment with teachers that have certification and training in the area of gifted and talented.
